

One Day Paper: Zombie Apocalypse

So unfortunately most people are now zombies. I know, crazy, right? They're the slower moving ones that do more jogging than a full on sprint so don't get too freaked out in that regard. In this 500 word paper, you need to describe in detail how/where you would survive the zombie apocalypse. Check out the list below for things to consider when writing about your ideal setup.

1. Where will you choose to call your homebase? Think about safety, keeping zombies out and important things in.
2. How will you sustain yourselves (assume you're with several other friends/family during the ordeal) with things like food, water, waste (poop and stuff).
3. How will you defend yourself at your base or perhaps if you decide to venture outside
4. Try to also consider certain moral dilemmas like seeing a close friend or family member approaching your camp and what it might be like to know what you have to do but struggling to actually pull the trigger, literally and figuratively.
5. Lastly, think about entertainment and boredom. I know that might not be the first thing you think of during an apocalypse but staying active and sharp is super important.
